

Freedom of Information Policy 2019

To be read in conjunction with the BEST GDPR Policy

To be reviewed Winter Term 2023

1. Policy Statement

- The Freedom of Information Act 2000 came into effect on 30 November 2000 and gives a general right of access to recorded information held by a public authority, including Academies and Trusts, subject to certain exemptions.
- Robert Bloomfield Academy is committed to complying with the provisions of FOIA.

2. Definitions

- “RBA” and “the school” means Robert Bloomfield Academy.
- “Appropriate Limit” means the limit set by the Freedom of Information and Data Protection (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004 as amended from time to time.
- “Fee Notice” means the amount the Requester will need to pay in order for RBA to comply with the request for information.
- “FOIA” means the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and amendments.
- “GDPR” means the General Data Protection Regulation, [and the Data Protection Act 2018]
- “Publication Scheme” means a list of information that will be routinely published via the school’s website.
- “Requester” means the person making a request for information from RBA.
- “Social Media” means websites and applications that enable users to create and share content or to participate in social networking including, but not limited to, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Google+, and all other social networking sites, internet postings and blogs. It applies to use of Social Media for school purposes as well as personal use that may affect the RBA in any way.

3. Procedure for making a request for information

- The school requires requests for information pursuant to the provisions of FOIA to be made in writing. RBA considers ‘in writing’ to mean communications by post or email.
- Requests for information held by the school should be sent to the addresses found in Appendix 2.
- A request for information made to the school should provide the name of the Requester and an address for correspondence and should clearly set out the information being requested from the school.

4. Duty to Assist

- There may be circumstances where it is unclear to the school what information is being requested or where it appears that the request for information is such that responding will cause the school to exceed to Appropriate Limit.
- In these circumstances the school will seek to provide advice and assistance to the Requester in order to enable the school to provide the requester with the information they are seeking to obtain or inform the requester as to why this is not possible.

5. Time Limit for responding to requests for information

- RBA will seek to respond to a request for information promptly and in any event no later than 20 School days¹ or 60 working days² from the date of the request whichever occurs first.

¹ A School day is any day on which there is a School session.

² A working day means any other day other than a Saturday, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a day which is a bank holiday.

- Where a fee is payable for responding to the request, the school will disregard any day between a Fee Notice being sent to the Requester and the correct fee being received by the school when calculating the time limit for responding.
- In the event the school is unable to respond within the periods set out above, the school will write to the Requester advising it will be unable to comply and provide a new time scale for responding to the request.

6. Fees

- RBA will not charge for the provision of information which is requested subject to the provisions of FOIA³.
- The school is not obliged to comply with a request for information if the cumulative time spent on locating, retrieving or, if necessary, extracting the information requested is estimated to exceed the Appropriate Limit.
- The school may decide to provide information requested in excess of the Appropriate Limit without charging a fee where it considers it reasonable and within the public interest to do so.
- Where it appears that responding to a request for information will result in the school exceeding the Appropriate Limit and the school does not waive the fee for complying with the request, the school may provide the Requester with a Fee Notice. The school will also inform the Requester as to how it has estimated that the Appropriate Limit will be exceeded, what information it could provide within the Appropriate Limit, and provide the Requester with the opportunity to narrow their request.
- Where the school has issued a Fee Notice and the Requester indicates they are not prepared to pay the fee as set out in the Fee Notice or does not pay the fee as set out in the Fee Notice within three months, the school is not obliged to comply with the original request. The school will however consider any narrowed or amended request.

7. Exemptions

- The right to be provided with information requested may be limited by the application of an exemption. Some exemptions are absolute and others are qualified. Where an exemption applies to information requested, the school may also be exempt from having to confirm or deny that the information exists as well as from disclosing the requested information.
- Where a qualified exemption applies to information requested from the school, the school will consider whether the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information.
- The absolute exemptions most relevant to the school are those that relate to:
 - Information accessible by other means⁴;
 - Personal Information⁵;
 - Confidential Information⁶;
 - Prohibitions on Disclosure⁷.

³ The school may charge for requests where it incurs a costs in photocopying, printing or otherwise reproducing the requested information and/or where the school will incur a significant fee for providing the requested information in the format requested by the Requester. There may also be a charge where the school has issued a Fee Notice and the Requester has agreed to pay the fee as set out in the Fee Notice.

⁴ Section 21 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

⁵ Section 40 - Freedom of Information Act 2000

⁶ Section 41 - Freedom of Information Act 2000

⁷ Section 44 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

- The qualified exemptions most relevant to the school are those that relate to: Information intended for future publication⁸;
 - (a) Prejudice to the Effective Conduct of Public Affairs⁹
 - (b) Health and Safety¹⁰
 - (c) Legal Professional Privilege¹¹
 - (d) Commercial Interests¹².
- Where the school relies on an exemption in not complying with a request for information, the school will write to the Requester setting out the exemption relied on explaining the reason(s) the school considers that the exemption applies to the information requested and, where appropriate, why it has decided that the public interest in withholding the information outweighs the public interest in disclosing it.

8. Requests for Personal Data

- A request by an individual for their own personal data made subject to the provisions of FOIA will be treated as a subject access request.
- A request for the personal data of a third party will be refused where the provision of that information will contravene any of the principles of the GDPR, pursuant to Section 40(2) of FOIA.
- For further detail please refer to the school's GDPR Policy on Subject Access Requests.

9. Repeat and Vexatious Requests

- RBA will not comply with a request for information which is considered to be vexatious.
- In determining whether a request is vexatious, the school will consider whether the request is likely to cause a disproportionate or unjustified level of disruption, irritation or distress to the school, staff or governors. The school will also consider the burden on the school and any possible distress to its staff or board of governors in responding to the request, the motive of the Requester and the seriousness of the request.
- RBA will also not comply with a request for information which is identical or substantially similar to a previous request made by the Requester unless a reasonable time has elapsed between the current request and the previous request.
- In considering whether a reasonable time has elapsed the Trust will take into account the time that has passed between the current request and the previous request and likelihood that the information requested will differ significantly from the information provided in the response to the previous request.

10. Complaints

- Appeals against any decision not to supply information which the Trust considers exempt should be made to Vince Holmes – Assistant Principal System & IT who will review the original decision.
- A complaint about the Trust's Freedom of Information processes, procedures or how a request for information has been dealt with should be made to Craig Smith – BEST Chief Operating Officer.
- If a requester is unhappy with the outcome of their complaint or the way a request for information has been handled can complain to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
Tel: 01625 545 700.

⁸ Section 22 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

⁹ Section 36 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

¹⁰ Section 38 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

¹¹ Section 42 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

¹² Section 43 – Freedom of Information Act 2000

11. Monitoring and Evaluation

- This policy will be reviewed by the Assistant Principal – IT & Systems, every 4 years or earlier if required and may be subject to change.

12. Implementation and Review

This policy will be made known to all staff, parents/carers and governors, and published on the academy website. Copies are also available upon request from the academy office. This policy will be reviewed every four years or earlier if required.

APPENDIX 1

Freedom of Information Publication Scheme

Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) requires all public authorities (including schools) to adopt and maintain a publication scheme. In 2008 the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) changed the emphasis in the approval and operation of publication schemes to a generic model, with effect from 1 January 2009.

The model commits a public authority to 'produce and publish the method by which the specific information will be available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public'.

A school will breach the FOIA if it has not adopted the model scheme or is not publishing in accordance with it by this date.

Robert Bloomfield Academy has adopted the ICO Model Publication Scheme in full, unedited. The Guide to Information below should be read together with the ICO Model Publication Scheme which can be found at: <https://ico.org.uk/media/for-organisations/documents/1153/model-publication-scheme.pdf>

The Local Governing Body are responsible for maintenance of this scheme and have delegated to the Principal the day-to-day responsibility for FOI policy and the provision of advice, guidance, publicity and interpretation of the school's policy.

HOW TO REQUEST INFORMATION

You can request a copy of the information you want from the contact details in Appendix 2

If the information you are looking for is not available via our publication scheme and is not on our website, you may still ask if we have it. Please contact the school in writing, by email, fax or letter.

Please state that this is a Freedom of Information Request

PAYING FOR INFORMATION

Information published on our website is free, (apart from any connection costs payable to your internet service provider). If you do not have Internet access, you can access our website using a local library or an Internet café.

Single printed copies of information covered by this publication are provided free unless stated otherwise. If your request means that we have to do a lot of photocopying or printing, or pay a large postage charge, or is for a priced item such as some printed publications or DVDs we will let you know the cost before fulfilling your request.

SCHEDULE OF CHARGES

This describes how the charges set out in the Guide to Information above have been arrived at.
