2.	Agenda Items: 1. Behaviour across the school (led by Mr Guiney) Mr Guiney explained his role in school. 1) Is disruption and behaviour a problem in lesson? 2) What happens about it? 3) Is it consistent? Some classes – depends on teacher/lessons. Some students not caring – calling out. Making silly jokes in certain lessons with certain teachers. 1-3 lessons a day has some disruption. Getting up out of their seats – teachers try to stop it. Pupils can be spoken to outside the classroom. Talking at the back of the room – furthest away from the teacher. Teacher often remaining at the front of the room during lessons. Lessons after lunch can be more challenging, warnings (yellow card -> red card) followed through, on-call. Arguing with other pupils. Talking when teacher is and chatting amongst themselves. FT expectations not necessarily matched in other lessons. Needs to be clear boundaries and expectations. Sometimes 'fuzzy' as to what behaviour stage you're at. Supply teachers – not aware of policy perhaps? Inconsistency – straight to yellow card and exits. What works well? Passing info on to teachers e.g. explaining why someone might be late. Tutors talk to pupils about their day – positive and negative.
